

6516208272.txt

Please allow satellite radio to continue with it's unique programming. I was coming home Monday from Charlotte, N. C., and could get the Baltimore and Washington traffic and weather on my way to determine the best routes to take to avoid major traffic tieups. XM satellite also allows me the freedom to choose what type of music I want to listen to, with no commercials or jiberish from some "radio personality". Thank you, Robert A Hall